May 2021 Performance Outlook

Bullish streak to give way to a range bound market trend

The month of May 2021 ended on a positive note and caught most investors by surprise. The bulls took charge of the market. The positive market sentiment was a result of declining new cases of covid, increasing momentum in the vaccination drive, strong March quarter results, and the re-opening of global economies.

Based on the readings derived through our Time Theory, our April newsletter clearly mentioned that the market will create the bottom for the month in the first week of May, more precisely, before 4th May and that is exactly what happened. May 3rd saw the market create a bottom of 14416 levels giving an opportunity to the bulls to enjoy a 1000 points rally.

Bullish streak to give way to a range bound market trend

Subscribers who acted on our recommendation, to take advantage of every dip as a buying opportunity and pick up trades in the long position, benefitted immensely.

The NIFTY 50 was on a range bound journey till the 15th of May. Post that it resumed an upward journey which saw the bulls take charge, just as was forecasted, and this upward trajectory extended for seven consecutive sessions, taking the index above the 15,600-mark for the first time on May 31st, 2021.

Astro Outlook for the Month - June 2021

As mentioned in our April 2021 newsletter, we had predicted with 100% accuracy that in the week of May 25th, Nifty will take an upward journey and test its previous top. Market closed at 15,582 on May 31, 2021 after a week-long bullish trend creating new record highs. This bullish trend will continue till June 10, 2021 as per the time theory.

Post June 10, 2021 onwards, the market will take a brief pause for some time. The top created around this time range will probably be the top for the entire month.

Our Time Theory further indicates that after June 10, 2021, market will trade range bound. Although, the range could be comparatively broad.

Astro Outlook for the Month - May 2021

Traders will get short term opportunities on both sides. They will get opportunities to short their positions as well as create long ones, although breaking the top levels created around the date range of June 10-12 will be difficult.

Astro Outlook for Nifty Bank

Nifty Bank has given excellent short coverings and rallied however, from June 15th, it will take a pause as well. It will once again face stiff pressure and a correction is on the cards after June 21st.

Markets will face constant pressure after June 10th and performance will be low for the entire month of June 2021.

Expert Recommendation

Keeping the above mentioned forecasted market trends in mind, we recommend that short term traders who are in long positions should exit their positions and should wait for an appropriate opportunity to re-enter. We anticipate that the market may achieve good levels but, for a very short range.
