

RIGHT TIME TO BUY THE DIP OR WAIT (17/06/2022)

Is the time right to BUY at the current market dip or WAIT? What is the best market move to adopt?

The week of June 17th saw NIFTY closing at its lowest level in almost 11 months at 15,183. Markets tumbled almost 15% from the last high created on April 4th this year. Based on the Time Theory, we had put out the profit booking call for April 4th, a prediction that benefitted our readers and subscribers immensely.

Given the fall in the markets and correction in levels, the question that is in everyone's mind is whether one should start buying the dip?

As per our analysis based on the Time Theory, there may be a pause in the current fall and markets will witness a relief rally. But, there could still be a possibility of further correction in the levels.

A pause/Pull back rally can be expected. Exercise caution while investing in current levels.
