Financial Market Trend Predictions -

May 2026

Three time cycles- 1 Bearish-, 2 Bullish-, 3 Bearish bias

Time theory Astro Outlook- May 2026

May marks a transition and closure phase for precious metals as we approach the end of the Astro Financial Year 2025–2026.

We are pleased to highlight that Silver has emerged as the top-performing asset class, precisely in line with our annual forecast. Throughout the year, our cycle-based approach has consistently captured trend direction and timing with high accuracy.

For May, the underlying astrological structure indicates:

- Continuation of weakness
- Absence of sustained bullish momentum
- Dominance of corrective and downward cycles

Conclusion: This is a cooling-off and consolidation phase, not a trend expansion phase.

- The outcome has strongly validated our macro-cycle framework

Time theory Astro Outlook- May 2026

May 2026 – Time Cycle Structure

Time Cycle 1: 1 – 05 May

Trend: Continuation of Downtrend

Behavior:

- Carry-forward weakness from April persists
- Selling pressure remains active across sessions
- Lack of strong buying interest, further impacted by rising inflationary concerns

Interpretation:

This phase reflects a clear continuation of the existing bearish trend, rather than any signs of reversal.

Macroeconomic pressure, combined with weak cycle support, suggests that any upward movement is likely to be temporary and unsustainable

Time theory Astro Outlook- May 2026

Time Cycle 2: 06 – 15 May

Trend: Mild Recovery Bias to upward movement

Behavior:

- Temporary stabilization in prices after the initial decline
- Intermittent pullbacks driven by short covering and tactical buying
- 06 and 14 May emerge as potential bullish windows
- Volatility remains high with lack of follow-through

Interpretation:

This phase represents a technical relief within a broader bearish structure.

Upside movements should be treated as corrective rallies, offering repositioning opportunities rather than fresh accumulation.

Time theory Astro Outlook- May 2026

Time Cycle 3: 15 – 29 May

Trend: Renewed Downward Momentum

Behavior:

- Selling pressure re-intensifies
- Mid-month recovery fails to sustain
- Formation of lower highs and lower lows
- Sentiment weakens progressively

Interpretation:

This is the dominant cycle of the month, likely to define the overall structure. Prices are expected to move towards monthly lows, reinforcing the broader distribution and decline phase.
