

Gold's Downward Turn-17/09/25

Gold – Beginning Its Downward Journey- Cosmic Cycle Shift-17/09/2025

After an enormous rally, the cosmic cycle has shifted, and gold has now stepped into its downward phase. This decline is expected to play out in stages—through consolidation, liquidity sweeps, and bouts of heightened volatility. From 02 October onward, cosmic indications suggest gold will remain under pressure. Adding to this, today's crucial repo rate cut announcement could further fuel volatility in the metal.
